What is the seminar about? Who should attend?

Our annual Mortgages update has consistently been one of our most popular events. This year, we decided to make it a full-day seminar rather than the usual half-day. We hope that, by doing this, the additional time will allow for a more in-depth discussion of the myriad of topics being regularly tackled by practitioners. The new format will also provide delegates with an opportunity to network and catch up with colleagues over a buffet lunch, which is included as part of the event.

The aim of this seminar is to update practitioners on the latest developments in the area of loan enforcement. Discussion focuses on the best advice to both lenders and borrowers, including both residential and corporate borrowers, in the event of default. We also consider the position of other affected parties, such as guarantors and the tenants of residential properties which are being repossessed.

- Solicitors and barristers.
- Insolvency practitioners.
- Accountants.
- Company directors.
- Secured creditors.
- Debt recovery specialists.
- Anyone with an interest in banking!
