What is the seminar about?

This is an “all you need to know” update for practitioners in the area of company law, presented by one of the country’s leading corporate barristers. It focuses on both the changes introduced in the area by the Companies Act 2014, as well as the case law and legislation following its enactment. The latest cases from both the Irish and English courts is presented in a thorough, but accessible, way with ample reading material researched and drafted especially for this seminar.

As with all our seminars, the focus is on providing practical advice to corporate clients, be they company directors, shareholders, creditors, liquidators, receivers or examiners. As this is an “update”, we strive to bring you material which is not yet available in even the most recent text books.
