

Banking update 2015: prosecuting and defending mortgage proceedings

Upcoming Law Seminar in Dublin

Date and time: Thursday 2nd July 2015, 2.00 - 5.00pm

Venue: Gresham Hotel, Dublin

Price: €99 per person

3 CPD Points!

What is the seminar about? Who should attend?

The aim of this seminar is to update practitioners on the latest developments in the area of loan enforcement. Discussion focuses on the best advice to both lenders and borrowers, including both residential and corporate borrowers, in the event of default. We also consider the position of other affected parties, such as guarantors and the tenants of residential properties which are being repossessed.

Over the past couple of years, loan enforcement has generated more case law than any other area of law. In this seminar, we talk about the most significant cases from the Superior Courts, latest legislative developments and compliance with the central bank's codes of conduct. This seminar provides the very latest information concerning mortgages and will be of great interest to any person advising financial institutions, state bodies and borrowers of all descriptions.

- Solicitors and barristers.
- Insolvency practitioners.
- Accountants.
- Company directors.
- Secured and unsecured creditors.
- Debt recovery specialists.
- Anyone with an interest in debt recovery!
